Terrible are the Ravages.

Upon the system inflicted by disease of the kidneys and bladder. They wreck the constitution more speedily in some cases than consumption and other maladies of a fatal pulmonary type. As you value your life, arrest a tendency to debility and consequent inactivity of the renal organs, should you experience any such. Infuse vigor and activity into the vitally important secretive action of the kidneys with that salutary diuretic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The proper degree of stimulation is imparted by it to the bladder also, when the organ is sluggish. With this timely check, Bright's disease, diabetis, catarrh of the bladder, and other kindred disorders, may be prevented. Liver complaint, constipation, nervous ailments and rheumatism, are likewise conquerable with this sovereign household remedy. Against the effects of exposure in damp or otherwise inclement weather, it is a benign safeguard, and revives strength after undue fatigue.

Can't Sleep Nights, is the complaint of thousands suffering from Asthma, Consumption, Coughs, etc. Did you ever try Acker's English Remedy? It is the best preparation known for all Lung Troubles, sold on a positive guarantee at 10c., 50c.

W. PINNIGER, Druggist.

Thousands of Dollars,

Are spent every year by the people of this State for worthless medicines for the cure of throat and lung diseases, when we know that if they would only invest $5, in SANTA ABIE, the new California discovery for consumption and kindred complaints, they would in this pleasant remedy find relief. It is recommended by ministers, physicians and public speakers on the Golden State. Soldand guaranteed by Osburn & Shoemaker, Reno, Nevada, at $1 a bottle. Three for $2 50.

The most stubborn case of catarrh will speedily succumb to CALIFORNIA CATA-R-CURE. Six months' treatment for $1. By mail $1 10.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria

Merit Will Tell.

Was never better demonstrated than when "Fryer's Abietene Remedies" were awarded diplomas at the late California State Fair at Sacramento and at the Mechanics Institute at San Francisco. W. Pinniger is agent for these celebrated "Abietine Remedies" and he offers to return your money if they do not give satisfaction. In buying, be sure the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer is on each, as none are genuine without it.

SHILOH'S CURE will immediately receive Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker.

Heart Disease!!

Read the hospital reports, read the mortuary reports, read the medical publications, read the daily newspapers, and learn how wide-spread is heart disease, how difficult of detection it is to most people, how many and how sudden are the deaths it causes. Then read Dr. Flint's Treatise on Heart disease, and learn what it is, what causes it, what diseases it gives rise to, what its symptoms are, and how it may be attacked. If you find you have heart disease, ask your druggist for a bottle of DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY. The treatise may be had on application to

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at S. J. Hodgkinson & Co's., Drug store.

Coming to It.

In the earlier days of the plains cattle business it was claimed that the range itself contained everything necessary for the sustenance of the herds, summer and winter. On this theory the range was filled up and the great boom of a few years ago set in motion. It was not long, however, until shrewd cattlemen saw that the assumption upon which capital had been so freely invested was a mistaken one. An occasional winter of severe losses furnished an argument on this point to which there was no answer. Then humanitarians took up the matter and demanded a radical change in plans and management which would eliminate the vast amount of suffering to which the stock is often exposed. Last winter's experience gave to these people their strongest plea, and besides came down on ranchmen with such losses that they could no longer shut their eyes to the inevitable. As a result extensive preparations are being made in places for preserving reserves of feed for cold weather. A single ranchman in the Northwest is reported to have put up ten thousand tons of hay this season. Others are moving in the same way, though perhaps influenced more by self-interest than by dictates of humanity, while it is to be hoped that the latter has not been an altogether powerless factor in the case.

Thus the ranchmen are "coming to it." This is right, and will do much toward strengthening an industry which has suffered heavy financial reverses for some time past, and toward freeing it from the just and severe criticism to which it has been subjected. But the reform must not stop with providing winter feed. Shelter is also necesary, and will one of these days be provided for. Of course this all means the curtailment of the ranching business; for the more nearly its conditions are brought to those belonging to farm stock-raising the more certain it is that large areas now devoted to the business will have to be abandoned. Those ranchmen who fall in with this recognition of the necessities of the future of the industry are those who will continue to succeed. Those who refuse should and will fail.

The American Merino Sheep.

We must pronounce the American Merino the poor man's sheep under most all circumstances. This Merino is no longer an experiment. Its wants are simple and when properly supplied always reward the care. It is simple and cheap, the rewards it return are in very exact proportions. If the care is lavish and the feed abundant, it pays all the bills and not only balances the ledger, but places a satisfactory amount on the profit side. It is universally recognized as in every way the champion sheep of the world for wool production, and may yet be so considered for mutton. The big mutton sheep, so popular once, has gone out of use in the best markets of the world, and, as says Rev. John Gillespie, "the plump, pony built mutton sheep now has the call in Edinburgh and London," and we will remark, also in New York and the western cities of America. A fat sheep that will dress from a hundred to a hundred and twenty pounds commands the quickest sale. "Good, well kept American Merino wethers will be the popular mutton breed at the shambles in the near future," says Gillespie.

The Latest and Greatest Discovery

Dr. J. DeBratti's Hamburg Figs.—A crystalized fruit cathartic. A discovery of the greatest interest to the medical profession. A boon to every household. A most delicious laxative or purgative prepared from fruits and vegetables. So perfectly harmless that they may be administered with entire safety to an infant. So efficacious to adults that a single dose will prove their value, and so elegant a preparation that it needs only to be presented to the public to become a necessity in every household throughout the land. For liver complaint, habitual constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia and piles they are a specific. To travelers by sea and land they will be found invaluable; they are positively unfailing in their action, and this is the only medicine ever offered to the public that is acceptable to the taste, and so pleasant that children will eat the figs as eagerly as candy. For sale by druggists throughout the world. Price, 25 cents a box. J. J. Mack & Co., Prop's., 9 and 11 Front street, San Francisco, Cal.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

TUESDAY.....OCTOBER 25, 1887

THE Democrats, now that Congress is not in session, appear to be very anxious to decrease the surplus in the Treasury. While Congress was in session there were various legitimate ways in which this could have been done, but they failed to avail themselves of them. The Blair Educational bill could have been passed to the great credit and advantage of the country. But this Democracy would call that wasteful. The River and Harbor bill could have been signed by the President, and thus highly important interests of the country could have been greatly advanced and this unnecessary surplus decreased. The large number of pension bills passed by Congress, distributing thousands of dollars to poor dependent and deserving Union soldiers, could and should have been signed by the President and not vetoed. This again would have decreased this surplus. A large appropriation could and should have been made for coast defences, which their late political sage, Samuel J. Tilden, so strontly recommended. These and other worthy objects could have been provided for out of the overflowing treasury, but like the miserable miser, they held on to the money and refused to spend it for worthy and deserving objects, and yet raise the continual cry, "What shall we do with that surplus?" They do not stop its accumulation and they are too unwise or too penurious to spend it.

THE power of an ocean storm was well illustrated a few days ago at Bishop Rock, England, when an iron column twenty-three feet long and weighing 6,000 pounds, part of a new light-house being built, which during a storm had been left lashed by a half-inch chain at each end to strong eye-bolts, was found tossed up by the waves twenty feet to the top of the rock, swaying about like a piece of timber. Two days later, when the laborers were able to land, a blacksmith's anvil weighing 150 pounds, which they had left in a hole three and a half feet deep and only two and a half feet in diameter, had also been washed by the waves completely out of the hole.

MICHAEL DAVITT, the eloquent pleader for Irish home rule, said in a speech at Minneapolis a few days since, among other things:

With forced emigration England is killing two birds with one stone. She is riding herself of the socialistic element and reducing American workingmen to her level of wages. This is a phase of the immigration question I would ask you to consider. The ruling classes are endeavoring to make the English workingmen emigrate; the workers claim that the idle and do-nothing classes should go.

Every one can see that what is England's interest in this respect is our injury. It is this class of immigrants from England and every other country that we do not want.

THE American dynamite gun is a good weapon of war for short range, but will not be of much account at short range. The view that many journals take, in respect to the dynamite gun revolutionizing the manner of building ships of heavy armor, is not to our mind logical. Those heavily armored ships carry guns that will throw balls from six to eight miles, and would in case of a cambat with a gun-boat armed with a dynamite gun, knock the latter out before she could get in range to use her guns to any advantage.

THE Crow Indians, of Montana, are threatening to fight rather than return a lot of ponies stolen from their hereditary enemies, the British Piegans. Cavalry is at the agency to uphold the agent in authority. Gen. Sheridan has gone to the scene of discontent. There is strong probability of a repetition of the same Indian troubles which have followed so quickly with Utes in Colorado, Sioux in Dakota, Apache in Arizona and Blackfeet in the British Northwest—all resulting from Indians resisting civil officers making arrests.

A Reign of Terror.

RIO GRANDE CITY, Tex., Oct. 24.—Starr county, along the Mexican border, is in a state of terror. Mexican bandits ride through the streets of this and other neighboring towns at night, and the officers of the law dare not show themselves. Saturday a gang of bandits came to town and mailed two letters at the postoffice, one to Manuel Guerro of Roma and the other to Senor Donscino Garcia, of this place, notifying them that unless they raised $1,500 and $8,000, respectively, for the bandits, their stores would be blown to atoms with dynamite.

Governor Ross has been appealed to for protection, but thus far no response has been received.

The U. S. cavalry, located at Ringgold barracks, near here are of no service because of the official red tape necessary to move the troops from the barracks on short notice. Before an order from headquarters could arrive the town might be sacked and the bandits safe in Mexico. Stage travel in this section is at present dangerous.

Opium Dens.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 24.—For the last three years the police have suspected that certain houses here kept by Chinese laundrymen were frequented by young girls. Last night people living in the neighborhood of Frank Belle's laundry, West street, said they had seen a young girl enter the place during the day and she had not been seen to come out. The police made a descent upon the place at 1 o'clock this morning, and a woman of twenty-two and a girl of fourteen were found lying in a bunk. The former was well-dressed, pretty, and wore a profusion of diamonds. She declared she was married to Billie last June in Saratoga by a Methodist minister. A short time afterward she returned to her mother's home in Philadelphia and got acquainted with Maggie Williams, the fourteen-year-old girl found in the opium joint with her.

Denis Kearney's Anti-Chinese Crusade.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Denis Kearney will address a circular letter to clergymen in this city asking them to make a tour of Mott street to witness Chinese life in that precinct. He is also planning to discuss the Chinese question jointly with Long Chin Foo at Cooper Union.

The World says: Chinamen are very indignant over Denis Kearney's visit through their quarters, and they have held a meeting to denounce Kearney and their Consul. A formal protest will be sent to the Mayor in regard to the affair. The matter will be referred to legal advisers as to the advisability of the arrest of Kearney for forcible entrance and using abusive language while in Chinatown.

Stevenson's Regiment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The fourth annual dinner of the survivors of Stevenson's Regiment occurred last evening. There was a good attendance. Several letters were read from members of the regiment on the Pacific Coast. Among the number is one from John G. Adams, of Santa Rosa, who sailed with the regiment when three years of age, on the Loo Chew. He was the child of the regiment. He writes: "Dark-eyed senoritas then kissed and caressed me; ah, why don't they do it now?" The reunion took place at Martilli's.

A Candidate for a Hempen Collar.

APALACHICO, Fla., Oct. 25.—A man named Parish a few days ago killed three negros in Calhoun county. Four negroes were using Parish's boat to gather up logs which had broken loose, when Parish came along. It is said that the negroes told Parish they had no intention of stealing the boat, but Parish would not receive their explanations. He raised his Winchester and shot one down in the boat, killed another on a raft and another, who attempted to run away. The fourth dived overboard and escaped.

Irish Affairs.

DUBLIN, Oct. 25.—Walsh, editor of the Wexford People, who was sentenced yesterday to a six months' imprisonment for publishing reports of meetings of supposed branches of the National League, was condemned today to two months' imprisonment at hard labor on another charge. Four of the summonses against him were dismissed.

Dillon is expected to arrive at Cork to-day. Trouble is feared.

The Railway Commission.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The Pacific Railroad Commission resumed its inquiries to-day. Its investigations are about to close, and it was said by the Commissioners that probably witnesses at this hearing would be the last called. A telegram from Governor Stanford was read, in which he desires an inquiry into the equities existing between the Government and the Central Pacific.

A Steamer Lost.

COLLINGWOD, Ont., Oct. 25.—The steamer City of Owensound was wrecked half a mile east of Clapperton Island lighthouse, during a heavy gale Monday morning. The crew left the steamer in a life boat and had a narrow escape from being drowned. The steamer was owned in Toronto and was valued at $29,000.

A Rich Man Kidnaped.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25.—Advices from lower Rio Grande state that a party of bandits have captured a rich old rancher in the lower portion of Encinal county, and made off with him to their stronghold. They left word at the ranch that parties desiring to negotiate with them for his release could go to a rendezvous named by them.

An Attempt to Cremate Thirty Italians.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 25.—An attempt to burn thirty Italians asleep in a building in the township of Paris, Kent county, was frustrated last night by the timely warning of one who awoke and found the building in flames. The building was one used by an Italian, Santo Gargato, who was keeping a sort of a store, with rooms above for sleeping apartments for Italians at work on the railroad south of the city. There have been hard feelings existing between this crew and the crew of 14, at work near by, and who lived in the city. About 10 o'clock last night an unknown man crept into a vacant room and set fire to the house, and then joined a party on the outside, who barricaded the doors and used every effort to keep the inmates from escaping.

Dissatisfied Stockholders.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A quarrel among the trustees of the Colton Oil Company, which has led to the retirement of John V. Lewis as President will culumniate to-day in the retirement of five Directors who have been in sympathy with Lewis and Trustee J. L. McCauley. It was decided to ask J. H. Flagler to accept the Presidency. Flagler agreed on condition that he might name five trustees of the new board. His wishes were acceded to.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

NEW YORK, Oct 24—The steam launch Mary burst her boiler to-day at the foot of 116th street, instantly killing John and Patrick Cunningham, brothers. Carl E. Schmidt, owner of the launch, was blown into the river, but saved. Several others were badly bruised.

Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The regular meeting of the Cabinet was resumed to-day, all the members being present excepting Whitney and Lamar, who are out of the city. The annual reports and the President's message to Congress were the principal subjects of consideration.

SURE CURE—Dr. Porterfield, who is at present in this city, has worked up for himself a great name for his wonderful cure of Rupture. Alderman Lewis' son, who had a bad rupture, was completely cured by him, and asked our reporter to make public the facts.—[Marysville Daily Democrat.

A. Giles, of Sacramento, who had a very bad double rupture, says: "He would not take One Thousand Dollars for Dr. Porterfield's treatment, as he has only been under his care a short time and is nearly well." (Mr. G. had a very bad double inguinal hernia.)

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 1st, 1887.

DR. PORTERFIELD—Dear Sir: I want to give my testimonial in favor of your treatment for rupture. My son, whom you treated on January 1st, 1887, for Umbilical and also Inguinal Hernia, is now entirely cured. I would advise all who are ruptured to see you without delay.

ED. DIETERLE.

I was persuaded to try Dr. Porterfield's treatment, since which time I have not lost a single day's work, and I consider that Dr. Porterfield saved me from an untimely grave, as I was unfit for anything. If you are ruptured see him without delay. WALTER FELLOWS,

NOT A RENO BARBER.

Burdette Tells of a New and Fetching Kind of Barber.

"Your beard is very soft and easy to cut," remarked the barber, passing his trusty cimeter across the cheek of the condemned man.

The victim gasped, but was silent; there was an air of originality about the remark that he did not easily understand.

"You usually shave yourself, do you not," asked the headsman, raising his face and breathing high above the doomed one's head.

The unhappy man bewildered by a new order of things which passed finite comprehension, confessed his guilt.

"I thought so," said the inquisitor, "because your face is smooth, so free from cuts or scratches, and your mustache is so evenly trimmed. A man always knows better himself than any one else the style of beard most becoming to him. Your hair has been trimmed most tastefully," he added, "but of course," with a little laugh, "You did not do that yourself?"

The martyr moaned feebly, and confessed that his hair was last cut in a little country barber shop down in Bluejeans county.

"Yes," said the executioner, "some of the best artists in our business are in the country shops. A man learns his trade thoroughly in the city, and then sensibly goes into business where all custom is cash, rents low, expenses light; he can do just as fine work and make more money. I think of going into the country myself in a few years. Your scalp is very clean and healthy, sir."

The sufferer recovering himself by a violent effort, besought the headsman to give him a sea foam shampoo and put a little tonic on his hair.

"Your head really does not need shampooing," said the barber, for it was indeed he, "and the tonics I do not keep. These so-called tonics and hair renewers are the worst thing in the world for the hair. Clear water is a better dressing than patent renewers, and you can take better care of your scalp yourself than any barber can do for you, if you" ——

He paused and bent to look into the strangely quiet face of the man in the chair. He was dead.

PERSONAL.

Frank Golden is in town.

Hume Yerington came down from Carson on last night's train.

Miss Georgie Farley, of North San Juan, is visiting friends in Reno.

Ex-Assemblyman Hark, of Ormsby, was a passenger on last night's V. & T.

Mrs. J. V. McCurdy, of Paradise, who has been a guest at the Golden Eagle Hotel for several days, returned home to-day, together with her husband, who this morning returned from San Francisco.

Mistaken Identity.

On Saturday evening, says the Carson Tribune, a telegram from Chief of Police Henderson, of Virginia, was received by Sheriff Ullrick that an important witness in the Morrow perjury case was on the train and for the Sheriff to arrest him. A description of the person was sent and he was arrested on the arrival of the train and conveyed to the Sheriff's office, where he was accommodated with a comfortable bed. Yesterday morning sufficient proof of a mistake was given, and the gentleman released. It proved to be Mr. Maxon, member of the firm of Maxon & Ackley, wagon and horse dealers of Sacramento. Mr. M. took all in good part and expressed himself as well pleased with the kindness shown by our Sheriff.

Rae's Electric System.

Lyon county Times: All the dynamos are now in place, four in number, at the Douglas mill, and the Electric System is running to perfection. A run of 55 tons of high grade mixed ores from different points this week worked up to 96 per cent. Loss of quicksilver 16 pounds, mostly in handling and what was left in the bullion after being retorted. The run now in progress (low grade), assay value $47 per ton. Tailings from which assay $2 82 per ton, showing a working of 94 per cent. thus far. Not a trace of floured quicksilver to be found when settlers are ready to be drawn off. Mill men are invited to examine the sluices; no trace of floured quicksilver can be seen upon them where formerly they were white with it. The system is one of the grandest achievements in the application of the electric current up to the present time.

The Mirror of Ireland.

The following complimentary notice is taken from the Denver News: Another large audience greeted the Dan Morris Sullivan Combination at the Academy of Music last night. This show is popular and deservedly so. The panorama depicting scenes and life in Ireland are perfect representations, and the sketch work of Dan and Josie Sullivan is amusing and entertaining. This is the fifth visit of Mr. Sullivan to Denver, the first having been made as far back as 1870, and he has made a host of personal friends here.

A Big Beef Shipment.

A train of 22 carloads of cattle passed through to-day from Winnemucca. They are shipped by L. Godchaux, and are en route to the California ranch of M. Brandenstein & Co. for pasture. Owing to the scarcity of hay in Paradise Valley, consequent upon the diverting of the water of the Humboldt from its natural channel by large land owners, feed is very scarce in that region, hence the large shipments to the lower country.

Jacob Reim, a former resident of Nevada, was found dead in Sacramento yesterday. Two loads from a shot-gun were discharged into his body. It is not known whether it was suicide or accident.

Make No Mistake.

By dispelling the symptoms so often mistaken for consumption, SANTA ABIE has brought gladness to many a household. By its prompt use for breaking up the cold that too often develops into that fatal disease, thousands can be saved from an untimely grave. A MURDERER SUICIDES.

Mrs. Bowers' Assassin Proves to be Her Brother.

San Francisco Examiner: Some three years ago Dr. J. Milton Bowers was charged in San Francisco with the murder of his wife by poison. He was tried, convicted and sentenced to be hanged, and would have been executed had not the Supreme Court of this State decided against the appeal which had been made to that tribunal to grant him a new trial. It is true that the evidence against him was entirely circumstantial; but this was apparently of the most complete character, and the Doctor had previously suffered in reputation from a conviction for long-continued larceny of valuable volumes from a prominent bookstore. One of the witnesses for the prosecution and conviction of Dr. Bowers was his brother-in-law, Henry Benhayon, and one of the strongest circumstances was the fact that the Doctor had procured heavy insurance on the life of Mrs. Bowers. This morning the city will be startled by the announcement that Benhayon committed suicide yesterday, and the astonishment will be greatly increased by the announcement which the Examiner is enabled to make this morning, that among his effects was found a letter confessing that he himself was the poisoner of his sister, and that he alone was the beneficiary of the policy of insurance.

A Nut for Scientists to Crack.

We were conversing with a gentleman from Sierra Valley a few days ago, says the Truckee Republican. He is a gentleman of truth and veracity, and we will vouch for the truth of the following which he told us: There are a large number of artesian wells in that valley and, curious to state, many of them flow large quantities of hot water. Last August a well was bored on the ranch of J. B. Hathaway, near Beckwith, the result of which was a flow of about 150 gallons of water a minute, with a temperature of about 160 degrees. It is nearly boiling hot, so hot in fact that eggs can be cooked in it in seven minutes. During the past few months the waste water from this well has run into a depression in the ground near by and the result is that a small pond has been formed. This pond has no connection with any other stream or body of water, and the ground had been absolutely dry for several months previous. Lately it has been noticed that it was full of small fish from an inch to two inches long. Upon examination it was found that these fish were different from any found in the streams of the neighborhood. No person has deposited any fish or spawn in the water, and the question is, how do those fish get there? They could not have come from the well or they would have been cooked, and it has been generally supposed that fish spawn will spoil in a short time if exposed to the sun and weather. Who can explain the phenomenon?

Caution.

Imitations have been foisted upon the market so closely resembling Allcock's Porous Plasters in general appearance as to be well calculated to deceive. It is, however, in general appearance only that they compare with Allcock's, for they are worse than worthless, inasmuch as they contain deleterious ingredients which are apt to cause serious injury. Remember that Allcock's are the only genuine porous plasters—the best external remedy ever known; and when purchasing plasters do not only ask for but see that you get Allcock's Porus Plasters.

THE BIGGS & FARIS RANCH.

One of the Finest Bodies of Land in California.

THIS PROPERTY CONSISTS OF 1,937 ACRES OF LAND SITUATED IN BUTTE County, Cal., 78 miles north of Sacramento. The land lies one and a half miles along Feather River, one of the largest rivers in California, and runs thence westerly for from a mile to two and a half miles. One end of the land lies one and a half miles of the town of Biggs; the central part lies within three miles of the flourishing town of Gridley. Both towns are on the California & Oregon Railroad, the through line from San Francisco to Portland, Oregon.

The county road from Gridley to Oroville passes through the land. It is an exceedingly rich alluvial soil, capable of a very high state of cultivation. It can be irrigated from the Feather River, although irrigation is not necessary, as crops without irrigation have been raised successfully for twenty-five years. There are 200 acres of low hill land, which is most excellent soil for vines. The land is well timbered with huge white oaks, one oak in particular measuring thirty-six feet in circumference four feet from the ground.

The wood alone is very valuable, it being estimated that if cut into cordwood it could be readily sold for the total sum of $40,000.

The land is all cultivated and produces thirty-five bushels of wheat, or sixteen sacks, to the acre, and fifty bushels of barley. It will raise without irrigation eight tons of alfalfa to the acre. The land is within the citrus belt, and all kinds of citrus and deciduous fruits do well.

This is the best fruit land in the State of California and should be devoted to that purpose. There is a two-story house, also barns and outbuildings on the place as well as two small orchards.

The total yield this year from this place in grains, fruit and pasturage has been about $45,000. The owners have realized from rents alone $18,000 this year.

It lies well for cutting up into small tracts. It can be cut into 80-acre tracts, which will sell readily at $100 per acre. If colonized and cut into smaller tracts we believe it could be sold for double that amount.

Title perfect—confirmed Spanish grant of 80 years. This property is for sale at $145,000; one-third cash, balance one, two and three years at 8 per cent.

Similar land in this vicinity is rated at $100 per acre.

ARE THEY HUMAN?

A CHAPTER OF CRUELTIES.

Geese Fooled with Red-Hot Iron for Corn—Horses' Tongues Pulled Out.

Mr. Charles Douglass, the general agent for the Ohio Society for the prevention of Cruelty to Children and Animals, whose duty it is to travel through the State and organize the various counties into co-operative branches, and lecturing, gives the following interesting information. Mr. Douglass makes a study of the cases of cruelty he discovers throughout the State, and having a kindly heart for the brute creation, tells some terrible tales of man's brutality to beast.

"You run across a good many cases of cruelty, don't you, outside of the large cities?"

"Why, yes, you'd be astonished at the number of cases I find. The honest farmer is about as cruel as the man in town, and then he's away where he thinks nobody will see him or know anything about it. For instance, in Allen County, a man tried to induce a boy thirteen years of age to go out and steal some corn. The little fellow refused, and so the man resolved to punish him. He tied him up by his thumbs, and, laying his back bare to his waist, whipped him until the blood run. A daughter, younger, for a slight offense, was treated in the same way." "And where was the mother?" "Why, standing by, encouraging all this brutality.

"Another case in the same county was one of horrible brutality. A dog was saturated with benzine, set on fire and started through the alleys and cross lots of Lima.

FEEDING GEESE HOT IRON.

"In another part of the State, a blacksmith, who had been annoyed by a flock of geese entering his shop, resolved to fix them, though he could easily have put up a board and shut them out; but no. He devised a scheme chockful of devilishness. He heated a rod of iron red-hot, and, chopping off pieces the size of kernels of corn, threw them out where the geese were. They, mistaking them for corn, swallowed them, and the whole flock perished. The iron fairly burned holes through them.

TEARING OUT A HORSE'S TONGUE.

"In a farming county in the interior of the State, a farmer, who owned a balky horse, tried every way to cure him. He smeared his hands with oil of cumin, said charms, whispered in his ear, tied a rope to his tail and passed it through his hind and fore legs, but all of no avail. He then determined on a method of his own invention, that for sheer brutality almost heads the list. He tied a stout cord, the size of my little finger, slip-noose fashion to the root of the horse's tongue, and literally tore it out. Of course the horse would have to be killed, as he could not eat.

"Then I have those cases to report of men tying chains to horses' lower jaws and tearing them off."

IT STOPPED BELLOWING.

"Cutting out tongues is a favorite amusement with some people?"

"Yes, a favorite mode of torture. At Wapakoneta, Auglaise County, a butcher brought in a calf from the country, and tied it up in a stall to be slaughtered early in the morning. The orphaned calf missed its mother, and was hungry, and called loudly for something to eat during the night, as only a stout, hearty two months' old calf can. The butcher's sweet sleep was disturbed, and, rising from his bed he rushed out, seized a sharp knife, and, getting hold of the poor creature's tongue, cut it clear off."

MEDICINE FOR A CHICKEN-EATING SOW.

"Pigs are not often treated unkindly, are they?"

"Not!" Well, up in Madison County, a certain old sow had a decided fondness for spring chickens, not old hens, and one day a few young chicks straying into her pen, she made a square meal. The worthy farmer ran into the house, heated a poker red-hot, and put out both her eyes."

MEAN FARMERS.

"You find some pretty mean farmers then?"

"Up in Putnam County was a man so mean that he wouldn't give his stock even pasturage. In one season he lost sixty head of cattle. He was rich, so there was no excuse. One of his acts of cruelty was having turned a flock of sheep into a pasture completely run down, containing nothing but cockle-burs and Canada thistles, and two of the sheep, a little more foolish, as it turned out, than the rest, jumped over into his vegetable garden to get something green. That was enough; the farmer's mad was now up, and he hitched the two sheep together, yoked them up and turned them loose. They wandered off into the woods, and got entangled. One of them was found dead, its flesh devoured by the buzzards, while beside its bleaching bones lay the other, nearly dead, and partially devoured."

"Didn't they punish such a fiend as this?"

"Yes, he was arrested and brought before the Common Pleas Court, but he got out of it somehow; yet public indignation was so great that he was compelled to sell out and clear out—move to another State.

CRUEL BOYS MAKE CRUEL MEN.

"In Henry County a young man only twenty-four was hung for murdering a man and his wife, with an ax, about a year ago. When a boy it was his delight to torture animals. He boiled cats and dogs in his mother's washboiler, and frequently held the poor creatures over fires until they were burned to death. He appeared to delight in their agonies.

"Another case that well illustrates this principle: The party was noted for his cruelty as a boy, and one of his favorite occupations in winter, was plucking the last feather out of a chicken, and on the coldest day turning it out in the cold to see how long it would live. This man was lately on trial for poisoning his wife."

Louise de la Ramee, or "Ouida," is described as "a woman some forty years of age, gorgeously attired, tall, well set up, with England's limestone formation in the way of bones, well covered with adipose, garnished with light blue eyes and an abundance of yellow hair."

Rare Chance for Speculation in Property that is Steadily Rising.

The heavy demand now being made for Santa Clara Valley farms and lots in the City of San Jose is making prices rise steadily and affords a chance seldom offered to invest in a desirable location at prices that are certain of an advance.

Investments in Santa Clara Valley are more reasonable at present prices than at any other locality in the State of California when advantages of railroad shipment, rich soil, educational facilities, unequalled public improvements in respect to roads, sewers and public buildings, healthfulness and climate, are considered, which alone makes them certain and desirable.
